A LUMINOUS CHARGE

The Bauder Gang Conspiracy Case is Now With the Jury.

JUDGE WHITE UPON FIXED SUITS.

He Says a Magistrate Has No Power Whatever to Settle Cases.

The Bauder detective gang trial was completed yesterday evening, the jury retiring at 6 o'clock, after an exhaustive charge by Judge White.

At the morning session Jos. Reese testified that he had been arrested by Doyle on a charge of illegal liquor selling, upon an inby Nagle. Witness gave bail before Alderman Maneese. When he went for a bearing, Callen said he'd "fix it," and allowed witness to depart after paying $54. Mrs. Bittner, of Allegheny, was also arrested for the same cause. She asked Alderman McNuity what she should do about the matter. A Fifth avenue Alderman allowed her to enter bail. In another office on Fifth avenue a man told her the case could be fixed for $59. She paid the money and got a receipt signed G. W. Moore.

John Remling said he had been sued on the same charge, refused to give bail and went to jail. While in jail Attorney G. W. Moore and Doyle saw him and tried to induce him to settle the case for $50, then for spiracy, or none at all. F. B. Stoner, a de-tendant, was placed on the stand. He re-iterated the accounts he has heretofore given of his connection with the case. He said he swore to the information against Peter Butterhoff without knowing any facts at all. He said that Butterhoff wanted the case "fixed." He met Alderman Doughty one night, who asked him to fix the case up. He met Butterhoff and his wife at Doughty's office the next day. "I wanted $50 and he said he'd see me further. Then he had a confab with Butterhoff and said it's all

OLD TESTIMONY REVAMPED.

Witness detailed the visit to Alderman Cassidy's office, and how he offered Cassidy $10 to settle, which was refused. Doughty then talked a while and Cassidy accepted $15. He paid the $15 which had been given him by Doughty and they adjourned to a saloon, where witness received a scaled envelope containing $35, the balance of the $50 agreed upon. Two weeks theresiter witness gave Bauder $25, retaining $10.

Bender was sworn, and denied that there had been promises of immunity for his testimony. He implicated Doughty and Stoner in the Burns case. Stoner, recalled, denied Bender's last testimony. J. D. Boggs, an East End merchant, testified as to Stoner's character. John A. Dougherty was called and sworn. He said he wanted to leave the detective business, and was to get $9 a week from Bauder. He worked four or five weeks, and drew only two weeks' pay. He described the modus operandi of squeezing people by the Bauder process. He said that Bauder wrote out informations, which he swore to and signed. He denied getting money from settled cases. W. J. Brennen, for Bauder; L. P. Stone, for Dougherty, and Attorney Robb, for Stoper, made addresses. The speeches were limited to an hour. Attorney Burleigh summed up for the Commonwealth, and stated that out of 64 cases brought by the Bauder agency only three reached the courts, and one of these had been returned by an Alderman after he had been sued for

The jury retired at 6 o'clock and Judge White waited for 15 minutes, but they did not return and court was adjourned.

The jury in the Bauder gang conspiracy case reached a conclusion about 9:25 o'clock last night. The verdict was sealed, and will be returned to court at the opening

EVERETT PIANO CLUB.

Or Co-Operative System of Selling Pianor Is the most successful and satisfactory plan ever tried. We are delivering pianos as fast as our wagons can haul them. Our members get the lowest possible price, because there are enough members to contract for 350 pianos, and thus save $75 in the price of 350 pianos, and thus save $75 in the price of each piano; 350 members, each paying $1 per week, will pay for one piano in cash each week, and we deliver one piano per week on these payments. Members who pay all cash, or who pay $25 cash and $10 monthly, can take their pianos at once, and still get the discount obtained by the club contract. The piano selected by the club has no superior. Having the whole market to choose from on so large a contract, we chose the Everett, because it gives full value, dollar for dollar. We pay nothing for reputations of men who died years ago. The Everett is a piano of to-day, with all the latest improvements. The tone is rich, GLARINGLY UNLAWFUL METHODS the latest improvements. The tone is rich, powerful and musical, and they are made to wear. Each piano is warranted for seven vears. Now don't wait too long. Our club is not yet full, but we are delivering pianos formation made before Alderman Callen and it is filling up rapidly. Send for circu-

One of the novel features of the Exposition was the registering of names by the Singer Manufacturing Company, and drawing, at the close of the Exposition, for one of their elegant drop cabinet machines.

Every lady, regardless of the machine she was using, had an opportunity of drawing this machine by registering her name at the stand, and over 12,000 availed themselves of it. Of these 12,000 ladies, 80 per cent are now using Singer machines.

The drawing was conducted at the Exposition in the simplest and fairest manner possible. At 9 o'clock two little girls were Mr. Reardon made the opening speech for the defense.
